

KimberLeigh.me

HomeResumeReelPhotosContact

Collapse

Collapse was for a 72 hour film challenge for the A3F ALMOST FAMOUS FILM FESTIVAL. The genre was shape shifting. It is a story about the collapse of the housing market and what it can make some people do. This won a best Actress Award for Kimber Leigh

Copper

Copper is a film short that was an Idea by Kimber Leigh and Written by Diane Dresback and was directed by Bvas Biswas. It is a story about having faith and believing, even when life looks like there is no solution. This film showcased at the Phoenix Film Festival, 2010

To Some Degree

To Some Degree, is a story idea again by Kimber Leigh and Diane Dresback, and written by Diane Dresback, directed by Steve Wargo. This is a short about a woman who loses the greatest part of her mind, when she loses her daughter. This film showcased at Phoenix Comicon, and also Filmstock Film Festival.

Sweet Connections

Sweet Connections was a film short also written by Diane Dresback. It tells the story of a couple who go to church to meet new couples. The couple that they do meet turns out to be the wrong couple of people! This film also debuted at Filmstock Film Festival.

Sweet Silence

Sweet Silence is a silent film that was really the film, Sweet Connections.

VROOM!

VROOM! was a film short that was an original story by Don Roff and directed by Jason Francois. This film was showcased at the A3F Almost Famous Film Festival, Filmstock, the IFP, and Phoenix Comicon...and also Toronto Canada. It won many awards. One being best actor/actress at Comicon International Film Festival

Other Links

Blog

Home | Resume | Reel | Photos | Blog | Contact
Site designed by 125Productions