

Melanie Williams is an infectious, sarcastic, kind, and hard-working singer-songwriter, actress, and model that has established herself in the industry with several awards, lead roles and has performed at many festivals around the world.

Born Melanie Louise Stringer, she legally changed her name to Williams after finding her estranged biological father. She began performing at the young age of 9, singing and acting in school talent shows, and soon found herself traveling with the theatre group Theatre Knights where she was the lead performer in several plays. She played the lead character, Lucinda, in Into The Woods, Babe Botrelle in Crimes of the Heart, and received the Basbas Theatre scholarship, and awarded Lead Choir Vocalist.

At (age), she was invited to perform at the International Fringe Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland (more info on this). At (age), she was inducted in the International Thespian Society and continued to perform in several festivals.

With her acting career well established, she started concentrating on her singing career with the band OneWord. She was also the featured singer at several places such as the Red Rock Resort in Las Vegas, Sunset Restaurant in Malibu, CA, and with the Jazz/Funk group Manchuka. She continues to sing around the Southern California area and writes her own lyrics as well as singing and writing for the all-girl group Kali 5

Her modeled portfolio includes work for Cinderella Modeling, Whiskey Girls, Spike Photography, and several other photographers and modeling companies.

If you would like to learn more about Melanie, please email her with any questions or booking engagements and she will respond within 24 hours.